The 11th Annual

Future Teachers Conference

Saturday, May 1st
At Highline Community College
$25 Registration Fee
www.teachingequity.com

Check-in opens at 8:00 AM
Start time - 9:00 AM
Ending time – 3:30 PM

FEATUREURING
New Wilderness Project
Leticia Nieto

Sample Breakout Sessions Include:
- Culturally responsive classroom strategies
- Invisible disabilities in the classroom
- The Japanese American experience in Pacific NW
- Building relationships with families
- Bilingual students, bilingual teachers

An increasingly diverse student population needs culturally competent teachers. This conference is for future educators looking to increase their understanding of how to work effectively in today’s diverse classrooms AND for people of color interested in learning more about careers in education.

Sponsored by