

SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF SUPPORT

International Students who apply to Seattle Central Community College (SCCC) or the Seattle Central Institute of English (SCIE) must show proof that they have adequate finances from a sponsor to support them while they study in the United States. Applicants can be self-sponsored. If this is true for you, please write "self-sponsored" under "relationship with applicant," sign under "sponsor's signature" and show bank statements in your name. Required funds of US$18,500.00 per academic year (9 months) include estimated living expenses and tuition.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

An I-20 form cannot be issued without a Sponsor's Statement and an official bank letter or official bank statement.

An official statement (original or certified photocopy) of financial status from sponsor's bank, indicating availability of funds, must be attached. The name on the statement must match the name of the sponsor.

Student's Family Name		Given Name	Middle Name (if any)
Sponsor's Family Name		Given Name	Middle Name (if any)
Street Address
City	Country		Postal Code
Telephone		Fax

If you have more than one sponsor, each sponsor must sign a Sponsor's Statement of Support and provide a financial statement.

I understand that while the applicant named above is enrolled in Seattle Central Community College, including the Seattle Central Institute of English, I will do the following:

Guarantee the payment of all educational expenses, including books and supplies, personal expenses, room and board, transportation, and tuition and medical expenses incurred by the applicant. (Estimated expenses may be found on the Seattle Central website.)

I hereby certify that the funds are available in the amount of US$18,500.00.
