

Quick Facts About Seattle Central Community College

- Named “College of the Year” by Time Magazine in 2001 (TIME chose one community college out of approximately 1,200 in the USA to give this honor).
- One of 11 community colleges highlighted for strong College Transfer programs: “For Achievers, A New Destination,” New York Times, April 2007
- Two-year government Community College
- Approximately 10,000 students
- Large international student population (approximately 1,000 from over 65 countries)
- Location: Downtown Seattle
- Accredited by the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges (NWASC).
- Institute of English accredited by American Association of Intensive English Programs (AAIEP)

Highlights Programs:

- College Transfer (Associate of Arts / Associate of Science)
- Fast Track (High School Completion) – earn your transfer degree and High School Diploma at the same time
- Professional and Technical Programs (30 different Associate-level degrees & certificates)
- Short-Term Certificates (9-12 months)
- Full-time ESL study in the Institute of English
- American Internship Experience (we recommend and prepare every interested international student to have a work or volunteer experience in local businesses and organizations).

Transfer Opportunities:

- Transfer agreements with all 4-year colleges and universities in Washington State
- Educational partnerships with colleges and universities throughout the country
- Offers conditional admission from its 6 university partners
- Have transferred students to hundreds of universities and colleges all over the United States
- We sponsor International Transfer fairs twice per year which draw up to 50 universities eager to recruit international transfer students into the 3rd year of study

Location:

- Beautiful, safe, medium-sized city in USA
- Strong economy with companies such as Microsoft, Nintendo, Boeing, Amazon, Starbucks and many others
- Ethnically diverse city—you can find every type of food in our restaurants and supermarkets; you can find support from people who speak your language
- College is located on 11 major bus lines—you don’t need a car!