

Seattle Central International Student E-NEWSLETTER

Summer Transfer Fair

Admission representatives from around the country will be here to talk to Seattle Central students about transferring to their schools. They will be able to answer specific questions about the application process, deadlines and the individual school degree programs.

July 14th from 10:00 - 1:00 in the 1st floor hallway of the main building.

This is a great opportunity to talk directly to Admissions Representatives from the schools that you are interested in transferring to. Don't miss it!

Here's a list of just some of the schools that will be attending:

American Internship Experience

An Internship is like volunteering, but is directly related to your major. It is a way to gain practical work experience in your field of study. An Internship is a valuable asset to any resume, especially for new graduates looking for employment.

Through the American Internship Experience, you can also earn college credit, learn valuable skills, and intern or volunteer for local businesses. (You must be in College Bridge level 4 or above.)

Come to the following info session to learn more:

Tues, July 14 at 3 pm in BE 1110
