This student is currently enrolled in my math course and is interested in taking the express course you are offering next quarter.

I have have not discussed the appropriateness and demands of the express course with them.

Based on the work this student has done so far their current status is:

_____ % overall or _____ Grade (preliminary)

Based on the work this student has done so far:

- I would highly recommend them for the express course
- I would recommend them for the course but with caution
- I would generally not recommend them for the express course
