What’s the Seattle Central Film Festival?

The Seattle Central Film Festival is an opportunity for all students, faculty, staff, and alumni to present their films and/or videos to an audience. It’s a celebration of our local filmmakers.

Who Can Submit a Film?

As long as you are affiliated with Seattle Community College District, you can submit a film. This year we’re accepting submissions from all campuses: North, Central, and South.

The person submitting the film must have had a major creative role in the production of the film/video.

What’s the Submission Process?

Your submission should include the following:

1. A completed application form (below)
2. A DVD of your film
3. A trailer of your film. This can be added to the DVD or emailed to cabfilms@myseattlecentral.com as a .mov file. Trailers will be used to advertise the Film Festival. If you choose not to submit a trailer, the SCCC Film Series Committee reserves the right to create one based on your DVD entry.
4. Submit the above materials to Alden Peters or Sam Chesneau of the College Activities Board office at Seattle Central (above the Bookstore). If you are submitting a film for North or South campuses, you can mail your submission to:

   Seattle Central Community College
   1701 Broadway 2SAC 350
   ATTN: Sam Chesneau, Alden Peters
   Seattle, WA 98122
When Are Submissions Due?

Submissions are due May 14.

If you are sending your submission by mail, make sure it arrives by May 14.

Who Decides Which Films Will Be Screened?

The Seattle Central Film Series Committee is organizing the 3rd Annual Seattle Central Film Festival. Members of the committee will view the films and decide which ones are screened at the festival. We will likely screen all submissions, but it is based on the amount and length of the submissions we receive.

For more information about the SCCC Film Series Committee, find us on Facebook. Search “SCCC Film Series Committee.”

What Kinds of Film Are You Looking For?

We are looking for any genre and style of film. Be it documentary, experimental, or silent—we’ll take them all.

What’s In It For Me?

You get to show your film or video to an audience! This year, we will also appoint a Film Festival Awards Selection Committee, which will vote on and distribute awards to the submitted films.

When is the Film Festival?

The 3rd Annual Seattle Central Film Festival is tentatively scheduled for Friday, June 4th.
